

What is FTLA?

The LACCD Faculty Teaching and Learning Academy, founded by the Student Success Initiative, is a joint effort between the District administration and the District Academic Senate to foster the highest standards of teaching and learning scholarship and to encourage the development of institutional cultures and environments that are learning-centered, technologically advanced, and culturally responsive.

The FTLA is designed to develop a widening community of faculty who:

- Explore and test methods of teaching and learning
- Facilitate the design of new classroom approaches to student success
- Increase knowledge and skills in a variety of new learning technologies
- Contribute to an ongoing dialogue about pedagogy, curriculum, and equity
- Form strategic partnerships that advance learning-centered practices and encourage and reward innovation in teaching and learning
